

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CORRESPONDING BODIES.

1. General Assembly of the other Branch, Rev. Charles C. Beatty, DD., LL.D.,
Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D.

Several persons appeared with new commissions, and their case was referred to the Committee on Commissions.

The Committee of Arrangements reported, recommending that the morning session open at 9 o'clock A.M., and close at 12 o'clock M.; that the afternoon session open at 2½ o'clock, and close at 5 o'clock P.M.; and that the first hour of the morning session be occupied with devotional exercises.

The report was adopted.

The Stated Clerk presented the Report of the Presbyteries on the Overture for Re-union, as follows:

Report of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, on the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures on the Re-union of the two Branches of the Church:

The number of Presbyteries connected with this General Assembly is one hundred and thirteen. Official responses have been received from every one of them. They have all answered the overture in the affirmative. In each of the Presbyteries of Albany, Wellsboro, and the District of Columbia a single negative vote was cast. In each of the remaining one hundred and ten Presbyteries the vote was unanimous.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN F. HATFIELD, Stated Clerk.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 10th, 1869.

The Assembly united in prayer and thanksgiving to God for this auspicious result.

The Rev. Samuel C. Aiken, D.D., Rev. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D., and Hon. John A. Foot were appointed to announce to the other Assembly the vote of the Presbyteries of this body on the Overture for Re-union.

Mr. Henry Day appeared as a Deputation from the other Assembly to communicate their action with reference to the reception of new Commissioners, as follows, namely, "That alternates, chosen before the meeting in May last, take the place of absent principals; and also that principals take the place of enrolled (absent) alternates." Whereupon,

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted: Having already referred the new Commissions to the Committee on Commissions, and having since received a communication from the General Assembly, now meeting in the First Presbyterian Church, relative to the subject of the constituency of the present Assemblies; therefore be it resolved, that the Hon. William Strong, Hon. Daniel Haines, and Mr. Frederick G. Burnham be added to the Committee on Commissions, to whom the whole subject shall be referred.

Resolved, That all matters requiring the concurrent action of the two Assemblies be referred to the Joint Committee of Conference on Re-union, to report to the Assemblies, respectively, the mode of procedure, and also to report a programme of joint religious services.

Adjourned until 3 o'clock P.M.

WEDNESDAY, November 10th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee, to whom the Commissions of new members were referred, reported, recommending that the following persons, having furnished evidence of appointment by their respective Presbyteries, in accordance with the rule previously adopted by this Assembly, be enrolled as members of this body:

The report was adopted.

The Hon. William Strong was appointed to communicate to the other Assembly the action of this Assembly on the reception of new Commissioners at this adjourned meeting.

The Special Committee to whom was referred a paper on the subject of Amusements presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The question of popular amusements is one that cannot be settled by statute. It has to do with the spirit and the life of Christianity, rather than with the letter of its law. Hence the impossibility of specific enactment. But the very fact of its near and vital connection with spiritual life justifies, and demands for it, a thoughtful consideration.

What scriptural guidance have we in the matter? What posture ought the Church to assume towards so-called popular amusements? A sweeping condemnation of them would be a sweeping folly. To say of them all, that they are inherently and positively sinful, is simply to say what is not true. And to protest against suitable recreation would be to protest against a mental and moral necessity. A long-visaged and sombre-hued piety is not after the order of the Gospel. That makes recognition of the laugh, the joy of life; has no frown for the play-side of our nature; bids us serve the Lord with gladness. Nowhere so much as in the heart of God's people should joy have her home, and go rippling out in the channels of deed and speech.

But what is suitable Christian recreation? We are without a specific "Thus saith the Lord" for each specific form of pleasure. But this is by no means to acknowledge that we are without scriptural guidance. The spirit is broader and deeper than the letter. There are general principles whose profound and subtle reach makes it impossible that they should be framed by a law. Those that bear on this question of popular amusements are three:

I. The first general principle has respect to the relation which Christians sustain to each other. It is discussed in Rom. xiv., and in 1 Cor. viii. Christian liberty in things indifferent is there distinctly recognized. But it is bounded and limited by a higher law. We must not abuse our liberty to the offence of our brethren. We must bridle our knowledge with charity. We are bidden to beware how we tamper with the sanctities of a brother's conscience, and to beware how we trifle with the necessities of a brother's weakness. The law of conscience and the law of love are far more sacred, and more precious, and more to be regarded, than the law of liberty. To the child of God they ought to be always paramount. To assert independence at the expense of wounding a brother's conscience, is "to sin against Christ." "It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth." Of course, a merely personal, puerile, wretched scrupulosity is not to be foisted upon the Church, for its government. But amusements, whose tendencies are inherently and almost inevitably to excess, where the weak and the unstable may stumble and perish, and against which there is a general Christian conscience, are decisively condemned by this plain word of God.

II. The second general principle has respect to the relation which Christians sustain to the world. It is negative, and summed up in this, "Be not conformed to this world." It is a relation of nonconformity. Christians are to be unlike the world, and distinguishable from it. This idea of separateness runs through all the warp and woof of Scripture. And it clearly does not imply a separation from the grossly evil of the world. This is specifically and positively commanded. Christians are pledged and sworn to obedience by their very profession. The separation involved in nonconformity is from worldliness—from the worldly spirit. It is a demand that the whole tone and bent and current and spirit of the Christian life shall be different from that of the worldly life; so different, that it shall be manifest to the world that the people of God are pilgrims and strangers on the earth; that they are walking with God; that they are a peculiar people, called out of the world while still remaining in it; God's witnesses; living epistles; the salt of the earth; distinctive, chosen, set apart, recognizable everywhere as having been with Jesus, and as holy in all manner of conversation. Let Christians apply to their lives this one central, prominent, gospel idea of nonconformity; let them press it on all their conduct, until they give unmistakable exhibition of the spirit of these unmistakable words of Christ and the apostles, and it will go very far to settle this whole question of rational or irrational amusements.

III. The third general principle has respect to the relation which Christians sustain to Christ. It is positive, and summed up in this, "Whatsoever ye do, in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus." Broad, comprehensive, universal in its applicability, yet most specific, after all, in its fundamental condition, "Whatsoever ye do." In another place, applied to the every-day necessity and act of our life—eating and drinking. Applicable, therefore, to our recreations. It is scriptural condemnation of every form of social diversion in which a Christian cannot indulge "in the name of the Lord Jesus." It is divine indorsement of whatever is done by a child of God; into which he may go, and out of which he may come, and through the progress of which he may continue, without there being one moment, when it would be in any way inconsistent for him to ask his Lord's approval of him there, and of what he is doing, and witnessing, and countenancing, and supporting.

Let this principle be honestly and conscientiously applied. It will settle many a doubt. It will condemn many a popular amusement. It bars out every indulgence that cannot be had in consistent and loving remembrance of our Lord. Amusements that undermine the health, and waste vitality; amusements by which the weak and the lame are so often turned out of the way, only to stumble and perish; amusements that make it appear as if God's children were as eager after, and as intent upon the gayeties and festivities of the world as the children of the world themselves; amusements making it essential for Christians to take positions that ought to bring, if they do not bring, the blood to their faces; amusements that compel Christians to witness scenes, and hear quips and jests, soiling their spirits with suggested uncleanness; these all, and all like these, are branded with condemnation by this divine precept. No true disciple of Christ can give himself to such amusements "in the name of the Lord Jesus."

We close as we began. This whole question must be taken out of the domain of abstract casuistry. It is not so much a question of absolute right and wrong as of conscience and charity. The spirit of our life is far more important than the letter of our law. The rule of love is higher than the law of liberty. Christianity antagonizes worldliness; it does not conform to it. The Church should deal with it, not so much by the axe of discipline as by the sword of the Spirit. Yet, without a doubt, the very law of love may sometimes require a kind, considerate, thoughtful exercise of the disciplinary power of the Church. But our chief appeal must be to the conscience. Our main reliance must be on the spirit and the life demanded by a whole-hearted surrender and commitment to the Lord Jesus. Those who are constrained by the love of Christ can scarcely allow themselves indulgence in any business or recreation, any work or play, into which, and through which, and out of which, they cannot consistently go, with ever present and affectionate remembrance of Him "who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify us unto himself, a peculiar people zealous of good works."

The report was also recommended to the Presbyterian Publication Committee for publication.

Messrs. Guernsey Y. Roots and Nathan Lane were appointed to fill vacancies in the Standing Committee on Mileage.

Rev. Samuel H. Gridley, D.D., and Mr. Henry M. Knox, were appointed to fill vacancies in the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A communication from the Executive Committee of the Presbyterian Historical Society was read, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Rev. John Waugh, Rev. Levi Parsons, and Mr. Albert A. Luce were appointed to prepare a minute on the members who have deceased since the adjournment of the Assembly, in May last.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, November 11th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A paper on State appropriations to Roman Catholic Schools was referred to the Rev. Henry Darling, D.D., Rev. Byron Sunderland, D.D., Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., William P. Massey, M.D., and Mr. Frederick G. Burnham.

A communication from the Permanent Committee on Foreign Missions was referred to the Standing Committee on that subject.

The Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., was appointed Chairman of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, to fill a vacancy.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on an Overture respecting the creation of a Sustentation Fund:

To the Overture from the Presbytery of Kansas, commended by the Synod of Kansas, asking that measures be taken by this General Assembly to provide a Sustentation Fund, by which the salaries of our Ministers may be secured and equalized,

The Assembly would reply by referring to its answer given to similar Overtures at its sessions last May, and recorded on page 262 of the Minutes.

This answer is given not at all to express opposition to this Overture, which treats of a subject of vital importance to our whole Church, but in view of the propriety of originating specific action, upon such a momentous matter, in the united Church.

The report was adopted.

The same Committee reported on the communication from the Presbyterian Historical Society as follows:

In reply to a communication from the Presbyterian Historical Society, asking for an appropriation of funds for the erection of a building suited to its uses, and also for an endowment the income of which will enable the Society to prosecute its work successfully, the Assembly refers to its former commendations of its objects and results, but cannot feel at liberty, in the present circumstances of the Church, to make any specific recommendation for action on the subject above named.

The report was adopted.

The same Committee presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows :

A member of the Dakota Presbytery requests that, in view of the peculiar constitution of that body, as the elders speak only their native tongue, and cannot attend the meetings of the Assembly as acting members, one half the assessment made upon that Presbytery for the Commissioners' Fund be remitted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend to the Assembly for adoption the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Mileage Committee be instructed to remit, in behalf of the Dakota Presbytery, the amount of their assessment for the Commissioners' Fund, and to appropriate to the members of that Presbytery, in attendance at the present sessions of the Assembly, their full share of the above-named fund.

The Special Committee on the report of the Assembly's Delegate to the Assemblies of Scotland and Ireland presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows :

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the General Assembly's Delegate to the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, and to the General Assembly of the Irish Presbyterian Church, would respectfully report :

That they find in this paper several suggestions which they deem eminently worthy of the consideration of the General Assembly, and which, in their opinion, are calculated, if carried into effect, to enlarge the influence and promote the prosperity of our Branch of the Church.

The suggestions referred to relate to the propriety of opening a correspondence with those Branches of the Presbyterian family in Great Britain with which we have, up to this time, had no formal or official communications. And they further propose an inquiry as to the wisdom of attempting to embody, in our practical polity, such institutions and customs as have been found useful and salutary among these sister Churches of the Presbyterian order.

I. In reference to the proposition for an enlarged correspondence with the Presbyterian Assemblies of Great Britain, the Committee would recommend, that it be referred to the next General Assembly, with the request that such action be then taken, as will bring all these different branches of the Presbyterian family abroad into more intimate and regular intercourse with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to the end that mutual sympathy may be promoted, and that each may, if possible, obtain increase of practical power and efficiency from the wisdom and experience of the other.

II. In reference to the suggestions, contained in the report, which relate to the propriety of an attempt to embody, in our practical polity, such institutions and customs as have been found useful and salutary among these sister Churches of the Presbyterian family, the Committee would recommend, that they be referred to the Committee to be appointed to promote the greater efficiency of the United Presbyterian Church, and that the attention of that Committee be especially directed to the following points:

1. Is it practicable, and would it be advantageous, to introduce some method which shall engage the whole Church in the effort to regulate the support of its ministers, and to provide, from a general fund, a sum which should be paid to each pastor, as a minimum of compensation for pastoral service?

2. Would it be advantageous to originate some provision, by means of which the Church properties should be controlled by the Church itself, rather than by Boards of Trustees appointed from the congregation?

3. Would it be desirable that measures be taken to secure uniformity among all our churches in the mode of admission to the fellowship of the Church, and in the administration of the ordinances—Baptism and the Lord's Supper?

4. Would it be desirable to have prepared special Forms for use in the Marriage and Burial Services, which might be adopted by the ministry, at their option, as occasion may require?

5. Can any plans be suggested for increasing the effective participation of the membership of our churches in the different methods of Christian work which we have undertaken, and more especially of increasing system and thoroughness in benevolent contributions to the objects recommended by the General Assembly?

6. Is it not desirable to adopt the rule of the Scotch Churches, allowing only pastors and those engaged in the direct and immediate work of the Church votes in Presbyteries, and representation in the General Assembly?

The Special Committee on Manse presented the following report, which was adopted:

Whereas, The importance of making a decided effort to secure for every Presbyterian Minister a Manse cannot be over-estimated, therefore,

Resolved, That the Moderators of the Presbyteries be instructed to inquire of the churches under their care what has been done, or what is proposed to be done, to secure Manses for Pastors; and that the results of said inquiries be appended to the report on the Narrative of the State of Religion sent up by the Presbyteries to the next General Assembly.

Adjourned until 2½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, November 11th, 2½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee to whom was referred the paper on State appropriations to Roman Catholic Schools presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly, observing with the profoundest concern the attempts that are now being made in various portions of our country, not only to remove the Bible from the place that it heretofore, generally, has had in our common schools, but also to secure from the State the pecuniary support of sectarian schools—schools under the exclusive control of the Church, and designed to teach the peculiar tenets of its theology and ecclesiasticism—desire to draw to these facts the special attention of their constituency.

Should this movement be successful, it must obviously ultimate in the complete disintegration and final destruction of our present admirable system of Common School instruction, a system that is the glory of our land, and that has already brought to it inestimable blessings. Moreover, as this movement for sectarian legislation is entirely in the interest of Romanism, it will, if successful, be so far a virtual establishment of that religion as the state religion of our land, securing from the public treasury, to which all our citizens contribute, the religious as well as the secular education of all its youth.

The Assembly would, therefore, earnestly request of their constituency to employ all the instrumentalities properly within their reach to avert from our country so fearful a calamity. Through the pulpit and the press, and by the presentation to our State legislatures of petitions and remonstrances, let the voice of our people be heard on this great subject, so vital to the highest interests of Christianity and liberty.

The Special Committee on Unemployed Ministers and Vacant Churches reported, recommending that the subject be referred to the next Assembly. The report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reported on the communication from the Permanent Committee. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions would respectfully report on the paper emanating from the Permanent Committee of the Assembly, which was referred to them,

That, in view of the fact that the appropriations of the American Board to the support of its missions have been made in advance for the year ending September, 1870, and that not only great embarrassment to the Prudential Committee, but also great injury to the cause of Missions would result from a sudden contraction in the receipts of the Board, the passage of the following resolutions is recommended:

1. Resolved, That the Permanent Committee on Foreign Missions be requested to urge upon the churches hitherto contributing to the American Board, that they do not withhold their contributions from it during the present fiscal year.

2. Resolved, Further, that the Permanent Committee be also directed to call the attention of our churches to the sixth article of the concurrent resolutions passed by the two Assemblies at the May meeting in New-York, which reads as follows: "There should be one set of Committees or Boards for Home and Foreign Missions and the other religious enterprises of the Church, which the churches should be encouraged to sustain, though free to cast their contributions into other channels if they desire to do so."

Since in this resolution the Assembly has presented its matured and well-balanced judgment in regard to the future relations of our churches to the method in which the work of Foreign Missions should be carried on,

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to take into consideration our relations to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, to report to the next General Assembly such measures as to them may seem proper and expedient for the adjustment of those relations to the new posture of our affairs.

As such committee, the Assembly appointed the Rev. Messrs. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., and Messrs. Robert S. Williams and William E. London.

The Special Committee on the Union of the several Presbyterian Bodies in this country presented a report, which was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, That, rejoicing in the immediate Re-union of the two Presbyterian Bodies so long separated, we would gladly hail a Pam-Presbyterian Union, embracing all branches of the Presbyterian family holding to the same Confession of Faith and Form of Government.

Resolved, That all uniting with us may freely enjoy the privilege of using such songs of praise to Almighty God as their consciences may dictate, as indeed is already allowed to and variously enjoyed in and by the several congregations now in our communion.

The Committee on Deceased Members reported a minute, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee appointed on Deceased Members of Assembly would respectfully report:

Since the meeting of this General Assembly at New-York in May last, the Great Head of the Church, who says, "Behold I come quickly, and my reward is with me to give unto every man as his work shall be," has taken from us three of those who participated with us in that memorable gathering, namely, Rev. F. R. Gallaher, D.D., of the Presbytery of Coldwater; Elder H. G. Torbert, M.D., of the Presbytery of Utica, and Elder Loring Danforth, of the Presbytery of Buffalo.

While we remember that we are commanded not to sorrow for those who have fallen asleep in Jesus, we cannot but regret the withdrawal of such needful laborers from the Master's earthly work, never more inviting or needful than now; regret because they have not been permitted to witness that consummation of Re-union for which they prayed and voted. Nevertheless, as we regard them as gathered to the Re-union of all the saints in glory, we would repress our tears, and express our sympathy for the dear relatives whom they have left below, deprived of their fellowship and support; praying God to sustain them in this loss by his watching providence and paternal love, and to enable all of us to be more diligent in the work to which he has appointed us.

The Joint Committee on the Re-union of the two Branches of the Presbyterian Church, presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Joint Committee of Conference on Re-union met on the 10th of November, 1869, at the lecture-room of the First Presbyterian Church.

The following resolutions and plans of procedure for the consummation of the Re-union of the Churches were adopted and recommended as proper to be passed by the respective Assemblies.

1. That each Assembly should declare the vote of the Presbyteries in the following language:

"This Assembly having received and examined the statements of the several Presbyteries on the Basis of Re-union of the two bodies now claiming the name and rights of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, which basis is in the words following:

‘The Re-union shall be effected on the doctrinal and ecclesiastical basis of our common standards. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged to be the inspired word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice. The Confession of Faith shall continue to be sincerely received and adopted as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures, and the Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States shall be approved as containing the principles and rules of our polity :’—

“Do hereby find and declare, that the said Basis of Re-union has been approved by more than two-thirds of the Presbyteries connected with this Branch of the Church.

“And, whereas, the other Branch of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now sitting in the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, has reported to this Assembly that said basis has been approved by more than two-thirds of the Presbyteries connected with that Branch of the Church.

“Now, therefore, we do solemnly declare that said Basis of Re-union is of binding force.”

2. That this Committee do recommend that a Special Committee of five from each branch of the Church shall be appointed to take into consideration the affairs of each of the Boards and Committees of both Branches of the Church, to recommend to the Assembly of the United Church, next to be held, what changes are required in said Boards and Committees.

3. That each Assembly also pass the following :

Whereas, It is apparent, from the size of the two Assemblies, that some changes must be made in the method of representation ; therefore,

Resolved, That each of the Assemblies of 1869 do appoint a committee of five, to constitute a Joint Committee of ten, whose duty it shall be to prepare and propose to the General Assembly of the United Church a proper adjustment of the boundaries of the Presbyteries and Synods, and the ratio of representation, and any amendments of the Constitution, which they may think necessary to secure efficiency and harmony in the administration of the Church, so greatly enlarged and so rapidly extending.

4. That the Assemblies do meet at 9 o'clock on Friday morning next, and that the vote of the Presbyteries be declared in each Assembly at 10 o'clock, and that each Assembly be then dissolved in the usual manner prescribed by the Form of Government. That each Assembly do immediately repair to —, there to hold a joint meeting for prayer and praise, and that a joint communion service be held on the same day, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. That all business before each Assembly shall be concluded on this (Thursday) evening, and no new business be taken up. That a Committee of Arrangements, of two from each Church, be appointed to decide upon the form, manner, and place of our public meeting, and that a statement on the subject of raising funds for the use of the Church be also prepared for said meeting by said Committee of Arrangements; and that the Rev. Samuel W. Fisher, D.D., Rev. A. G. Hall, D.D., Mr. Robert Carter, and the Hon. William E. Dodge be said Committee. That the first meeting of the Assembly of the United Church be held in the First Presbyterian Church of the city of Philadelphia, on the third Thursday of May, 1870.

That a Committee of five be appointed from each Branch of the Church, to take into consideration the subject of raising funds for the use of the United Church, and the best methods of doing the same, and the objects to which the same should be directed; and to report at the next General Assembly.

That a joint meeting on the subject of Home Missions be held this evening in the First Church, and to-morrow evening in the Third Church, on Foreign Missions, at 7½ o'clock.

The Reports of the Delegates to the Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church, to the General Conference of Maine, to the General Association of New-Hampshire, to the General Convention of Vermont, to the General Association of Massachusetts, to the General Association of Connecticut, and to the General Synod of the Reformed Church, were presented, accepted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported on an Overture with reference to the mode of uniting churches of the two Branches, as follows:

That no recommendation be made at this time by this Assembly on the subject presented, but that it be left for the consideration of the Assembly of the United Church in 1870, and that in the mean time no action affecting the title to any of the property of the churches be taken, except under the advice and with the consent of the Presbytery with which churches taking such action are now connected.

The Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Rev. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D., and Mr. William G. Crowell were appointed to act in conjunction with a like number of the other Assembly, as a Committee of Arrangements for the next Assembly, with power to add to their number.

The Mileage Committee presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

They have received for Commissioners' Fund, including balance from May, 1869.....	$7473 21
They have paid bills for the necessary traveling expenses of Commissioners.....	$5947 16
Incidental expenses of Committee.....	7 80
	$5954 96
Balance on hand.....
	$1518 25

Eighty-six Presbyteries have paid their assessment in full.

Ten Presbyteries have paid but a part of their assessment, namely: Champlain, St. Lawrence, Onondaga, Tioga, Lyons, Chenango, Rochester, Trumbull, Logansport, and Chicago.

Seventeen have paid nothing, namely: Troy, Watertown, Oswego, District of Columbia, Meadville, Coldwater, Franklin, Hamilton, Ottawa, St. Joseph, Fox River, Lake Superior, Des Moines, Keokuk, Dubuque, San Francisco, and Nevada.

Having received a sufficient amount from the Presbyteries, and having the requisite authority from the Assembly, your Committee have paid the necessary traveling expenses of the Commissioners entitled thereto in full.

The Committee recommend that our churches be assessed seven cents per member to defray the necessary traveling expenses of the Commissioners of the General Assembly to meet in Philadelphia in May, 1870.

Resolved, That the minutes of these sessions of the Assembly, with the Appendix, be printed under the direction of the Stated Clerk, and that copies be sent as usual to those Presbyteries who have paid their full assessment to the Commissioners' Fund.

The bills for stationery and printing, for the services of the Janitor, and for the traveling expenses of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, were ordered to be paid.

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this General Assembly be hereby tendered to the citizens of Pittsburgh, for the generous hospitality with which they have welcomed us to their homes, for the sympathy with which they have entered into our labors, and for the prayers with which they have supplicated the Divine blessing upon us and our sister Assembly; to the Pastor and Trustees of the Third Presbyterian Church; to the Joint Committee of Arrangements for their ample provision for our comfort; to the conductors of the daily press, and to the many railroad companies who have generously remitted so much of the expense of travel.

The Standing Committees severally reported that they had no other business, and were discharged.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, November 12th, 9 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Moderator announced the following as the several Committees referred to in the report of the Joint Committee of Conference on Re-union, adopted by the two Assemblies :

1. ON RECONSTRUCTION :

Rev. Samuel W. Fisher, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., Rev. Conway P. Wing, D.D., and Rev. Joseph F. Tuttle, D.D.

2. ON RAISING FUNDS :

Hon. William E. Dodge, Hon. William Strong, Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Rev. William H. Goodrich, D.D., and Rev. Charles Hawley, D.D.

3. ON HOME MISSIONS :

Rev. William Adams, D.D., Rev. Henry Kendall, D.D., Rev. Arthur Mitchell, Hon. Henry W. Williams, LL.D., and Hon. Jacob Farrand.

4. ON FOREIGN MISSIONS :

Rev. Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., Rev. Franklin A. Noble, Hon. Joseph Allison, LL.D., and Mr. Isaac Scarritt.

5. ON EDUCATION :

Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D., Rev. John G. Atterbury, D.D., Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., Mr. Alexander Whilldin, and Mr. Truman P. Handy.

6. ON PUBLICATION :

Rev. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D., Rev. J. Glentworth Butler, D.D., Rev. John W. Dulles, Mr. James M. Brawner, and Hon. John S. Knight.

7. ON CHURCH ERECTION :

Mr. George W. Lane, Rev. Frank F. Ellinwood, D.D., Rev. Cornelius H. Taylor, D.D., Mr. Oliver H. Lee, and Mr. Samuel T. Bodine.

8. ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF :

Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D., Rev. Charles Brown, Rev. James B. Shaw, D.D., Hon. Charles Noble, and Mr. Robert W. Steele.

9. ON FREEDMEN :

Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D.,
Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Mr. William Thaw, and Mr.
Joseph W. Edwards.

The calling of the roll at the close of this session was dispensed with.

The Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., and Mr. Henry Day appeared as a Deputation from the other Assembly, and presented the following communication :

“PITTSBURGH, November 12th, 1869.

“The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, holding its sessions in the First Presbyterian Church, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, holding its sessions in the Third Presbyterian Church :

“We hereby certify that the vote of the Presbyteries connected with this Assembly on the Overture in regard to Re-union is as follows :

“In favor of the Overture for Re-union and approving the same, one hundred and twenty-eight Presbyteries ; in the negative, three Presbyteries ; and thirteen Presbyteries which have not reported. And we further certify, that more than two-thirds of the Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly have approved of the Basis of Re-union mentioned in said Overture.

“WILLIAM E. SCHENCK,

The hour of ten having arrived, the following DECLARATION WAS, BY RISING VOTE, UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED :

This Assembly, having received and examined the statement of the votes of the several Presbyteries on the Basis of Re-union of the two Bodies now claiming the name and the rights of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in the words following, namely, “the Re-union shall be effected on the doctrinal and ecclesiastical Basis of our Common Standards ; the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged to be the inspired word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice ; the Confession of Faith shall continue to be sincerely received and adopted as containing the system and doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures, and the Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States shall be approved as containing the principles and rules of our polity,” does hereby find and declare, that said Basis of Re-union has been approved by more than two-thirds of the Presbyteries connected with this Branch of the Church ; and, whereas, the other Branch of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now sitting in the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Pittsburgh, has reported to this Assembly that said Basis has been approved by more than two thirds of the Presbyteries connected with that Branch of the Church,—

Now, therefore, we do solemnly declare that SAID BASIS OF RE-UNION IS OF BINDING FORCE.

After the offering of solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., on the third Thursday of May, A.D. 1870.

J. GLENTWORTH BUTLER,

Permanent Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. The Re-union Convention.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Friday, November 12th, 1869.

THE two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church, meeting respectively in the First and Third Churches of Pittsburgh, Pa., having both been in due form dissolved on Friday, November 12th, 1869, at 10 o'clock A.M., a JOINT CONVENTION, in accordance with previous mutual agreement, was held immediately after in the Third Church.

The members of the late N. S. Assembly, preceded by their Moderator, Clerks, and Re-union Committee, formed in order, two by two, and proceeded from the Third Church down Sixth Avenue to Wood street, and took position on the west side of the street, opposite the First Church. At the same time, the members of the late O. S. Assembly, preceded in like manner by their Moderator, Clerks, and Re-union Committee, came forth from the First Church and took position on the east side of the street, directly opposite the other column, the head of each line looking south towards Fifth Avenue.

The following gentlemen had been appointed, and consented to serve as Marshals of the day: Gen. J. K. Moorhead and Messrs. John D. McCord, William Rea and George H. Stuart.

The signal for the march having been given, the two Moderators met in the middle of the street, shook hands, and joined arms; as was done also by the Stated Clerks, the Permanent and Temporary Clerks, the two Re-union Committees, and the remainder of the two columns—the joint procession meanwhile marching forward, two by two, Old and New School interlocked along the whole line, down Wood street and up Fifth Avenue, Smithfield street and Sixth Avenue, (the whole distance attended by a rejoicing crowd of people,) to the Third Church.

As the procession entered by the right middle aisle, Wesley's noble hymn, was sung by the choir and the ladies who had been previously admitted to seats assigned them. The greater part of the procession found seats on the immense platform occupying the southern end of the great Church, the remainder occupying the pews in front of the platform; after which the doors were opened, and the house was immediately thronged to its utmost capacity.

The services commenced at 11 o'clock A.M., and were continued with unwearied interest for more than three hours. Addresses were made by the Moderators and others, both ministers and elders, previously designated, intermingled with prayer and songs of devout praise and thanksgiving.

The following preamble and resolutions, reported in behalf of the Committee of Arrangements, by the Rev. S. Wm. Fisher, D.D., LL.D., were passed unanimously :

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED IN JOINT CONVENTION BY THE MEMBERS OF THE TWO ASSEMBLIES—NOV. 12, 1869.

In the Providence of God, the two Branches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, after a separation of more than thirty years, are again united. This event, in its magnitude, is unparalleled in the ecclesiastical history of this country and almost of the world. It evidences to all men the presence and unifying power of the Divine Spirit. A fact so remarkable and significant attracts interest and creates expectation among even worldly minds. It awakens the sympathies and the hopes of all who truly love Christ among other denominations. It awakens hope, since it illustrates the evident purpose of God to bring all his followers into closer union in spirit, combine them in action for the overthrow of error and the diffusion of his truth; it awakens expectation, since they justly anticipate, on our part, from this union of resources, spirit, and action, a far more vigorous assault upon the forces of darkness and more decided efforts to spread the Gospel among all classes in our own and other lands.

To us, as a Church, it is an era in our history most memorable and hopeful; memorable, as it signalizes the triumph of faith and love over the strifes and jealousies of more than a quarter of a century; hopeful, since it is not the result of decadence and torpor, but of progress and augmented strength. It buries the suspicions and the rivalries of the past, with the sad necessity of magnifying our differences in order to justify our separation. It banishes the spirit of division, the natural foe of true progress. In this union are seen the outflashing of a divine purpose to lead us on to greater self-sacrifice, and a more entire consecration to the evangelization of the world. God has elevated us to this commanding position, that we may see his glory, and in the strengthened faith it inspires devote our united resources more directly and efficiently to the salvation of men. New and grander responsibilities rest upon us. Jesus summons us to a holier faith and more perfect consecration. He summons this Church to answer his loving-kindness by deeds commensurate with our renewed resources. The times are auspicious; everywhere peace reigns; the gates are open, and the millions of our own and other lands wait for the Gospel. Our position is commanding; our resources great; our methods of action well settled, simple, and efficient. The Spirit of God that has united us will inspire, direct, and bless our efforts. While we maintain the faith which Paul so fully unfolded, and our Church, in the centuries past, has, through manifold persecution and martyrdom, so gloriously upheld, we are summoned, as by the will of God, to arise and build, to form new, broader, and bolder plans for the extension of Christ's kingdom, and to enter upon and execute them with apostolic enthusiasm.

Let us then, the ministers, elders, and members of this Church here assembled, as, in spirit, standing in the presence of and representing the entire body of believers in our connection, and the beloved missionaries in foreign lands who now await, with tender and prayerful interest, this consummation of our union,—let us, in humble dependence upon our dear Redeemer, with deep humility in view of our past inefficiency and present unworthiness, and as an expression of our devout gratitude to Him who has brought this once discovered, now united Church up to this Mount of Transfiguration, signalize this most blessed and joyous union with an offering in some good degree commensurate with the abundant pecuniary gifts that He has bestowed on us. And, to this end, be it

Resolved, That it is incumbent on the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, one in organization, one in faith, and one in effort, to make a SPECIAL OFFERING, to the treasury of the Lord, of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS: and we pledge ourselves, first of all, to seek in our daily petitions the blessing of God to make this resolution effectual; and second, that we will, with untiring perseverance and personal effort, endeavor to animate the whole Church with the purpose to secure the accomplishment of this great work before the third Thursday of May, 1871.

Resolved, further, That the Stated Clerks of the Assemblies of 1869 be requested to publish this paper, with the names of the Moderators, Clerks, the Joint Committee on Re-union, and the Commissioners now in attendance, appended thereto.

At 8½ o'clock P.M., the Convention united in the celebration of the Lord's Supper at the First Presbyterian Church, which also was thronged in every part.

II. Correspondence.

THE REPORTS OF DELEGATES.

I. TO THE SYNOD OF THE CANADA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

I ATTENDED the meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Canada, according to appointment, as your Delegate, on the 11th June, 1869, at Hamilton, Ontario. I found a large body of ministers and elders in attendance, and was much interested in the discussions to which I listened during the afternoon. In the evening, an opportunity was very politely given me, and I made a full and somewhat lengthy statement of the plan and methods and desirableness of the proposed Union between the two Branches of our Church, as my own heart was full of this topic, to which these foreign Presbyterians listened with profound attention.

The Moderator, Rev. Dr. Ormiston, who so ably represented his body in both of our Assemblies last spring, replied with great earnestness, giving us assurance of the sympathy of our brethren in Canada in every good work, and especially in the subject of union.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. T. CHESTER.

Buffalo, N. Y., October 20th, 1869.

II. TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA.

By appointment of the General Assembly, convened in the Church of the Covenant in New-York City, it was my privilege to attend the sessions of the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church held in this city in June last.

I was most cordially received by that venerable body, and, having presented to them the salutations of the General Assembly, received in return, through their President, the most hearty assurances of their interest in our welfare. Especially did they express an earnest wish that the Union, proposed between us and the brethren of the other Branch, might be pleasantly and harmoniously consummated, and meet with the divine approbation.

The proceedings of this Synod were characterized by dignity, order, intelligence, and delightful Christian urbanity; and your Delegate, in his personal intercourse with brethren with whom he was intimately associated for many years, experienced a joy long to be remembered.

With Christian cordiality and love,

PETER STRYKER.

Philadelphia, Pa., November 11th, 1869.

III. TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES OF MAINE.

By appointment of this Assembly, the undersigned attended the sessions of the General Conference of the Congregational Churches of Maine, held at Bangor, June 22d, 23d, and 24th. I was very cordially received. In the sessions of the General Conference there is less of ecclesiastical business, and more of the devotional element, than with us. The Anniversary exercises of the State Societies of Missions, of Ministerial Relief, and of Ministerial Education, are held as part of the proceedings of the General Conference. The varied discussions and addresses showed clearly that the Congregational Churches of Maine are earnestly laboring to build up the kingdom of Christ in that State.

The address of your Delegate, in which he spoke of what had been accomplished by this Assembly, during the past year, for Home and Foreign Missions, Church Election, Ministerial Education, and Ministerial Relief, and of the influences which have been at work preparing the way for the Organic Re-union of the two large Branches of the Presbyterian Church, was kindly received. The Moderator responded. He returned the cordial greetings of the Congregational Churches of Maine, expressed great joy at the spirit of Union which is pervading the two Branches of the Presbyterian Church, and also expressed the hope that they soon would become organically one.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES S. DUNNING.

Honesdale, Pa., Oct. 25th, 1869.

IV. TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF VERMONT.

By virtue of an appointment of the General Assembly of May, 1869, I attended the sessions of the General Convention of Vermont, held at Brandon, June 15th. I was most cordially received, and I enjoyed the privilege of attending their deliberations.

The different Missionary and Benevolent Societies sustained by the churches of Vermont hold their Anniversaries in connection with the General Convention.

I had the pleasure of listening to an interesting discussion of the relation of the Young Men's Christian Association to the churches, also to the report of the Domestic Missionary Society. It was apparent there, as in other parts of the country east of the Hudson, that the railroad is building up new churches and pulling down old ones, as it changes the centres of population. The hills of New-England are left for the more attractive West, or for the villages and cities that spring up on the line of the railroad.

The fraternal salutations of your Delegate were kindly received, and heartily responded to by the Moderator.

Especial reference was made to the position of our Church, and to the fact that this was probably the last interchange of Christian courtesy between the General Convention of Vermont and the Presbyterian Church, (New School.)

The Moderator expressed the wish that the same fraternal intercourse might be continued between the United Church and the Convention; and, also, that all the blessings anticipated in the looked-for nuptials might be more than realized.

My intercourse with the Convention and its several individual members was very pleasant, and will long be remembered.

Yours respectfully,

THEO. S. BROWN.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 1st, 1869.

V. TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

THE undersigned endeavored to fulfil his duty as Delegate to the General Association of New-Hampshire, by attending on two days of their late sessions, at Keene, N. H., and by presenting the fraternal salutations of our body to theirs. He took the liberty of reminding them that, during the preceding ten years, the interchange of Delegates had been a rather one-sided affair; eight out of ten of our Delegates having performed their duty in person, while eight out of ten of their Delegates to the General Assembly had failed to appear. He assured the Association that, in thus continuing to appoint Delegates, and in making such an appointment among the last of our acts as a distinct Branch of the Presbyterian Church, we intended to make it clear, beyond all question, that our attachment to and confidence in the New-England Churches was unabated, and that whatever else Re-union might signify, it did not mean that that affection and confidence were to cease.

These sentiments met with a cordial response, and a Delegate was appointed to represent the Association in the Assembly of 1870.

The field of the New-Hampshire Association, especially in the rural districts, is not an easy nor a highly encouraging one, on account of the tendency to migrate both beyond the borders of the State and from the rural to the more thickly settled regions. Yet the brethren evince zeal and courage in their work. Contributions to the cause of Home Missions were somewhat greater last year than in any year previous. A Mission among the neglected population of the sea coast is kept up with great interest and success. Presbyterian Ministers are welcomed, perhaps with a more than usual cordiality to the fields of labor in this State, and as little disposition to magnify the differences of Church polity existing between themselves and us may be found among the brethren of New-Hampshire as in any other of the New-England States.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. MEARS.

VI. TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES OF MASSACHUSETTS, 1869.

As ordered by the General Assembly of 1869, the undersigned reports that he attended the Annual Meeting of the General Association of the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts, held at Woburn, June 15th, 16th, 17th.

Reaching the place of meeting on the evening of the first day's session, at the invitation of the Association he conducted the devotional exercises of the preaching service.

The next day, the Delegate presented the salutations of the Presbyterian Church to the Association. In his address, he remarked that the prospect of a speedy Re-union of the two great Branches of the Presbyterian Church in a compact body might easily give rise to the impression that a more rigid ecclesiasticism would lead to a withdrawal of a cordial fellowship with other denominations. The contrary was the fact. With the conviction that we can do Christ's work better as a United Church, is associated a large-hearted desire to grasp the hand and draw close to the heart of every denomination which is laboring to advance the Redeemer's kingdom. The spirit of cordial coöperation which had always characterized our Church, he believed, would hereafter animate the whole body. Reminded, as he was, that he was probably the last Delegate from the New School Presbyterian Church, since before another year the distinctive name will have disappeared, he referred to the causes which had made us, and were now about to make us cease to be, a separate denomination. He spoke with gratitude to God, of the fact that our Church had been ever a Church of freedom; that no mouth had ever been closed by its order; that we had stood unwaveringly for liberty of speech and of life; that we had suffered the loss of many things for it; but that God had watched over us, and had brought us out of trial, strong, compact, honored, and happy; and, in the prospect of Re-union and of greater power, there is among us not a spirit of exultation, but rather a deep desire humbly, but energetically and more devotedly, to work for Christ. He expressed the hope and expectation, that fraternal salutations would be heard by the Association next year from the United Presbyterian Church.

The reply of the Moderator was warm and fraternal, assuring the General Assembly of the affection and Christian sympathy of the General Association, and their joy at the prospect of our speedy Re-union.

The Association seemed to be deeply interested in their Missionary work. Revivals of religion (one, at least) of great power were reported, and a deep-toned spirituality pervaded their meeting.

In the evening your Delegate addressed, with others, the Association and a large audience, on matters of general religious interest. He left the place the next day, having been most cordially welcomed and honored as the Delegate of the General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM AIKMAN.

New-York, June 22d, 1869.

VII. TO THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF CONNECTICUT.

IN accordance with the appointment of the General Assembly, at its sessions in New-York, May, 1869, the undersigned attended the sessions of the General Association of Connecticut, at New-Haven, Ct., June 15th, 1869.

In conveying the Christian salutations of the Assembly to that venerable body, your Delegate recalled the history of the many occasions in the past, when the Assembly and the Association had held intercourse in reference to the great interests of the Church in our common country. Those occasions have been many, and their influence upon the spread of the Gospel in the Colonies, and afterwards in the States of the Union.

The Association listened with interest, and manifested its great pleasure in receiving assurance of the esteem and confidence of the General Assembly, and the hope that the correspondence would be continued in the future as in the past.

In response, the Moderator of the Association assured your Delegate of the continued fraternal regard of that body for the Assembly, and its congratulations upon the approaching Union of the two Branches of the Presbyterian Church.

If your Delegate may judge of the feeling of the Association of Connecticut towards the General Assembly by his own reception, that feeling is of the most fraternal character, and promises great good to both the bodies concerned.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM E. MOORE.
